Emcee Biography

Tracey Conway

Tracey Conway is best-known for her pop-culture persona. She reigned for ten years as one of Seattle's premiere funny ladies, performing weekly before live audiences on the sketch comedy show Almost Live! which aired on Comedy Central and the NBC affiliate KING 5 TV. At age 38, she was resuscitated from sudden cardiac arrest on the set of the comedy show in front of a large, live audience. While Almost Live! remains Tracey's most beloved TV credit, the Emmy-winning actress now channels her comedic skills to convey her message using the power of laughter, offering her cardiac arrest survivor story in presentations for hospitals, American Heart Association Go Red For Women events, and twice at the European Resuscitation Congress. She is proud to be one of the mere thousands to have also been a guest on Oprah, sharing her heart-stopping story. In addition to her speaking schedule, Tracey is active as an emcee for fundraising events, as well as a founding member of Seattle Radio Theatre, a performing company devoted to providing family-friendly entertainment in both live theatre and audio broadcast mediums.
