General Auction Rules

Each guest or couple will be given a bid number upon registration. Please keep your bidder number with you throughout the evening & return it when you pay for your merchandise. The REST Auction committee reserves the right to withdraw any item from sale prior to the call for bids. It is the responsibility of the winning bidder to contact the donor for item redemption arrangements.

Silent Auctions

All silent auction items have a bid sheet nearby. To place a bid, write your bid number next to the bid amount written on the bid sheet. Each increase must be the specified amount on the bid sheet. To secure an item, fill in the “guaranteed bid” section at the bottom of the bid sheet. This guarantees your purchase of the item at 200% of its value. The closing bid constitutes the winning bid; in the event of two winning bids identified at closing time, the auction official will honor the highest bid. Any disputes will be resolved by an official at the time of the corresponding section closure.

Live Auctions

If you wish to bid on a live auction item, hold up your bidder number toward the auctioneer. The highest bidder acknowledged by the auctioneer shall be the purchaser. A bid acknowledged by the auctioneer is a legal contract to purchase the item. The winning bidder will be asked to sign a bid sheet. A purchase must be paid in full by the purchaser, if the purchaser wishes to split the payment with another bidder, payment must be collected by the individuals separately.

General

All sales are final-there are no refunds or exchanges. All items must be paid for at the end of the evening. We gladly accept check, Visa, MasterCard or American Express. Please make checks payable to Real Escape from the Sex Trade or REST. Please wait 20 minutes after your last live auction bid to check out. We are a 501(c) charitable organization and your payment may be tax deductible.

Fund-A Need

We sincerely hope each of you have the opportunity to bid on some fantastic silent and live items! However, the heart of tonight's evening is our fund-a-need portion. This money will go directly toward REST's mission of providing pathways to freedom, safety, and hope to sexually exploited individuals through our continuum of care which includes prevention efforts, direct outreach, emergency shelter, advocacy and case management, and restorative housing.

If you don't see the amount you had in mind, raise your paddle numerous times to customize your gift. We've also provided a few examples below of what each amount can do in the lives our clients.

$10,000

could provide three months of intensive case management services for up to 25 survivors

$5,000

could provide meals for all of the residents living at the REST House for five months

$2,500

could provide one month of drop-in services, serving more than 50 survivors

$1,000

could fund a 12-week survivor internship at REST

$500

$250

Emcee Biography

Tracey Conway

Tracey Conway is best-known for her pop-culture persona. She reigned for ten years as one of Seattle's premiere funny ladies, performing weekly before live audiences on the sketch comedy show Almost Live! which aired on Comedy Central and the NBC affiliate KING 5 TV. At age 38, she was resuscitated from sudden cardiac arrest on the set of the comedy show, in front of a large, live audience. While Almost Live! remains Tracey's most beloved TV credit, the Emmy-winning actress now channels her comedic skills to convey her message using the power of laughter, offering her cardiac arrest survivor story in presentations for hospitals, American Heart Association Go Red For Women events, and twice at the European Resuscitation Congress. She is proud to be one of the mere thousands to have also been a guest on Oprah, sharing her heart-stopping story. In addition to her speaking schedule, Tracey is active as an emcee for fundraising events, as well as a founding member of Seattle Radio Theatre, a performing company devoted to providing family-friendly entertainment in both live theatre and audio broadcast mediums.
